Colorectal Cancer Screening Saves Lives

A Webinar with Washington University Gastroenterologists

Are you age 50 or older? If so, did you realize that you should be getting screened for colorectal cancer even if you do not have a family history of cancer and have not had any symptoms?

Join us for this brief webinar to hear the latest evidence-based guidelines for promoting colon health from experts in the Washington University Colon Screening Program.

Register online: wellnessconnection.wustl.edu

Click on 'Upcoming Events'

Learn How to Take Action to Reduce Your Cancer Risk

Wednesday March 28
Noon to 12:30 pm

Listen to our webinars from wherever you are!

Follow us! @WashUWellness